PRIVACY STATEMENT

Lalor Plaza Medical Centre complies with the Australian Privacy Principles, which give individuals the right to know what information a private sector organization holds about them, the right to access this information and to also make corrections if they consider data is incorrect.

As a patient of our medical practice we require you to provide us with your personal details and a full medical history, so that we may properly assess, diagnose, treat and be proactive in your health care needs.

We aim to protect the privacy and secure storage of your health information. You can request a copy of our privacy policy, which includes information about the collection, use and disclosure of your health information.

We require your consent to collect personal information about you and to use the information you provide in the following ways;

- Administrative purposes in running our medical practice, billings including compliance with Medicare and Health Insurance Commission requirements
- Disclosure to others involved in your healthcare including treating doctors and specialists outside this medical practice. This may occur through referral to other doctors, or for medical tests and in the reports or results returned to us following referrals.
- Disclosure to other doctors in the practice, nurses and registrars attached to the practice for the purpose of patient care and teaching.
- To comply with any legislative or regulatory requirements e.g. notifiable diseases.
- For reminder letters, which may be sent to you regarding your healthcare and management.
